ADDITIONAL INFORMATION

- Scholarships are available at the discretion of Missouri Scholarship & Loan Foundation (MSLF) in accordance with program rules and applicable law. All scholarship applications will be considered, provided that funding is available.
- Program funding will be determined annually by MSLF. The scholarship may be renewable for up to a total of four years. If funding is available, eligible previous recipients will be invited to apply for renewal using a special application. A 2.50 or higher cumulative college GPA is required to renew.
- Applicants will be notified if a scholarship is awarded via My Scholarship Central. The scholarship must be used to cover the Cost of Attendance as determined by the school.
- If this award is used for educational expenses that are not required for your academic program, such as housing, meals or transportation, your scholarship may be considered taxable income. You should consult your tax advisor about your specific situation.
- If awarded the scholarship, the amount may be reduced if your unmet need (i.e., your Cost of Attendance minus other scholarships and grants) is less than the scholarship.
